

P

- Parks Canada, 180–182, 203
- place identity/sense of place,
 - definitions, 98–99, 155–157
 - intangibility, 192–193
 - negotiation of, 83, 91–93, 154–156,
 - protecting, 131–132,
 - risks in tourism development, 83–84, 136, 240–241
- place promotion, 151, 153–154, 157, 205–206
- political economy perspective, 2–3, 20–33
 - rural development policy, 21–28
 - tourism in rural areas, 31–32
 - tourism as means of rural development, 28–31, 121
- Port Stanley (ON), 62–79, 75
 - Business Improvement Area (BIA), 71–72
 - case summary, 16
 - change from working spaces to tourist areas, 146
 - community concerns/participation, 62–64, 71–72, 77–78
 - demographic changes, 70, 148–149
 - diversified economy, 65–66, 70–71, 76
 - gentrification, 71, 146, 148–149
 - geographic location, 65–66
 - integrated tourism development approach, 63, 73–76, 244
 - lack of communal tourism planning, 62, 78–79
 - rejuvenation of tourism community, 64, 72
 - research approach, 64–65
 - tourism history, 67–73
- Port Stanley Terminal Rail Inc., 72
- practical skills and informal education, 230
- public policy, 29–31, 199–205, 232
- public-private partnerships, 209–211

R

- rational choice model, 239–240
- real estate prices, 140, 143–144, 148, 173
- Reid, D.G.
 - community development, 168–170, 219
 - community ownership, 111, 112, 230
 - community visioning conference, 224–228
 - cyclical planning process, 245–247
 - inadequate tourism planning, 31, 58
 - research on St. Jacob, 133
 - role of champion, 106
 - self-assessment statements, 218
 - tourism's transformation of communities, 142
- reinvestment and revitalization, 140, 141–142, 150
- rejuvenation of tourism
 - Canso, 96
 - in life cycle model, 64–65, 242
 - Port Stanley, 62, 64, 70–75, 78, 244
- resistance, community, 6, 32, 212
 - Lunenburg, 58–59
 - Vulcan, 89–90, 92–93, 156

- responsive tourism development approach, 35, 51–52, 56–59, 243–244
- restructuring
 - community, 173–174, 233
 - economic, 20–28, 172–174, 200–201, 232
 - municipal governments, 28
 - resource industries, 182
 - see also* neoliberalism
- revitalization and reinvestment, 140, 141–142, 150
- risk
 - business vs. local community, 32, 164–165, 216
 - to environment, 165
- Roswell, New Mexico, 82, 92
- rural communities, 7–8, 9–11
 - intangible assets, 193
 - outmigration, 7, 148, 186
 - and resource industries, 7, 22, 30, 94, 101–103
 - skills, 230, 233
 - sustainable, 117, 120–121, 149–150, 182–183
 - vs. urban communities, 8–10
- rural landscape, 138–158, 141–150
- Rural Partnership, 26
- rural policy, 21–28, 211–214
 - Agricultural Marketing Act, 23
 - Agriculture and Rural Development Act (ARDA), 24
 - Community Futures initiatives, 26
 - Free Trade Agreement, 25–26
 - need for national, 212–214
 - problem-centered, 211–212
 - regional and provincial development, 24, 121
 - Rural Partnership, 26
 - transfer payments, 22–23
- rural tourism
 - and community capitals, 197
 - as economic development strategy, 10, 11, 29, 30–32, 48–49, 56, 58
 - effect on community life, 32, 51–52, 55, 118, 161
 - effect on landscape, 118–119
 - need for planning, 122
 - OECD definition, 10–11
 - ongoing management, 242
 - premises behind, 117–123
 - role of community, 119–120
 - role in local culture, 117–118
 - role of policy, 121–122

S

- Sea Freez Foods, 103
- self-assessment statements, community, 218
- sense of place. see place identity/sense of place
- Sherbrooke (NS), 109
- ski resorts, 145
- sociability effects, 113–114
- social capital, 235
 - Canso, 112, 189